KEY ACTION 171

Erasmus+ Staff Mobility

with the partner country Ethiopia and the University of Hohenheim

The EU-Program

WHAT IS THE ERASMUS+ STAFF MOBILITY?

Erasmus+ is the exchange program of the European Union (EU) and the largest exchange program worldwide. Under the KA171 project line, the EU provides funding not only for students from outside the EU to study at an European university but also for employees of universities in our partner countries.

The University of Hohenheim has successfully applied for an Erasmus+ project with the partner country Ethiopia. As a result, the Erasmus+ grant covers individual grants for Staff- and / or Student Mobilities between the University of Hohenheim and institutions in the partner country Ethiopia.
